

Fancy Dress : 16th July, 2016

A party of sweet little children, angels, as they should be better called, at play is the most entertaining and fascinating sight to behold....

It was a feast to the eyes for the onlookers on 16th July at DPS-JC when the loveliest creation of Almighty, the Sub-Junior Group (Classes 2 & 3), enchanted all with their wonderful exposition of talent in the Fancy Dress Competition.

What a wonderful sight to behold! The tiny little flowers attired in varied outfits, some soldiers, some leaders, some farmers, while a few dressed up like warriors...

It was wonderful glitter of colour and talent...

Great work kids....

Sanskrit, the mother of all languages, enjoys its magnanimity and richness all over the world. It's the language of the saints & sages. Its holy, serene and pious. We at DPS-JC not only thrive in the glory of English or Hindi, Sanskrit too in its own right, gains equal importance. 30th July, 2016 was a testimonial to the wide use of Sanskrit as a medium of language. It was delightful to witness the morning assembly being conducted in Sanskrit. The assembly proceeding, unlike other days, was way above standard. Instructions & announcements were made in Sanskrit, and above all, an invocation to Lord Shiva commemorating the month of Sawan, gave a soothing feeling to the ears.

May our rich culture & tradition stay alive.

Our Children, Our Pride: 4th August, 2016

We were born to make manifest the glory of God that is – “Without the voice of students, schools serve no purpose.”

DPS-JC was once again glorified by the achievement of its budding talent.

Rishabh Sharaff and Deepak Kumar Sahu, students of Class 12, participated in a Monologue Competition on 4th August 2016, organized by ELTA@I, Bilaspur Chapter, titled – “SHAKESPEARE ALIVE 2016” commemorating the 400th death anniversary of the greatest Poet, Writer and Dramatist in English Literature, Sir William Shakespeare.

Deepak Sahu stood 3rd amongst all. One of the judges and the Chief Guest, Principal, DAV Bilaspur, praised our students profusely.

If this was an achievement worth praise, our Quiz team comprising Pranay Gupta (12th), Pratik Gupta (12th), and Harsh Agrawal (11th) too is due for a pat at the back.

On 6th August, 2016 these 3 wizards participated in the Quiz contest organized by the same group. Children performed exceedingly well, and at one time, were even leading.

But just as everyday cannot be our day, it just wasn't their day. However, the effort did not go unnoticed. They were appreciated profusely. Truly said, “It never ends until it ends.”

These children certainly deserve praise. And, its only the beginning; there are many more such glittering feathers to be added to the already bright DPS-JC cap.

Independence Day : 15th August, 2016

India is the cradle of the human race, the birthplace of human speech, the mother of history, the grandmother of legend, and the great grandmother of tradition. Our most valuable and most instructive materials in the history of mankind are treasured up in India only - So aptly quoted by Mark Twain.

Such is the glory of our nation and richness of its rich and adorable cultural heritage.

To think and realise that we are into the 70th year of Independence, breathing free under the blue in a nation that once was overcast in chains of slavery fills our hearts with pride and pleasure...

DPS-JC Celebrated the 70th Independence Day with exemplary fervour, jest and zeal. The whole atmosphere reverberated in the tunes of the patriotic songs that raised goosebumps in every individual...

Chief Guest Shri Purushottam Dewangan, VP - DPS-JC after being accorded a traditional and warm welcome, unfurled the national tricolour amidst the tunes of our National Anthem. AVP Shri Kamal Kishore Dewangan, Guest of Honour for the day, accompanied the Chief Guest, and was evidently in his usual charm.

The group song was an expression of joy and patriotism... Speeches by the students had feelings of love, dedication and sacrifice for the motherland.

Principal Sir in his speech congratulated all focusing on the effort and courage shown by our great leaders.

Our Chief Guest in his speech had a word of advice for the children. He stressed on the importance of remaining positive however unfavourable the situation and conditions may be. He too congratulated all.

It was a wonderful day that ended wonderfully. Everyone departed with sweet in their mouths and sweetness in their hearts.

Save Trees, Save Earth: 19th August, 2016

With the ever increasing threat of globalisation, the need and concern for green is rapidly on the high.

Trees are being mercilessly cut down for the so called "Urbanization".

Trees and plants are like our children. We have to nurture them, take care of them and try and save them.

It is a world -wide strive to plant more and more trees so as to add greenery to the nature...

Pre-Primary wing of DPS-JC in a bid to grow awareness among the masses, engaged themselves in observing Green Day and Plantation Day on 19th August 2016.

Children came attired in green. They were impressed upon about the importance of plants. In this context, they also planted saplings in the school ground.

Save Trees, Save Earth....

Teachers' Day : 5th September, 2016

"Better than a thousand days of diligent study is one day with a great teacher."

A much awaited day in most educational institutions, both for the students and the teachers - 5th September, the birth anniversary of Dr.Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan, the Second President of India, widely celebrated as Teachers' Day.

DPS-JC, like every other year, this year too celebrated Teachers' Day with immense love, respect and dedication.

AVP, Shri Kamal Kishore Dewangan graced the occasion as the Chief Guest. A special assembly was conducted by the teachers. Be it Piyush Sir's thundering command, Kalpana Mam's beautiful thought or Raj Rajeshwari Mam's informative news headlines, everything had class written all over it; and who would forget the heart-touching poem rendition in Hindi (Meri Abhilasha) by Shri Rajendra Upadhayay, Sanskrit Teacher!

Then the students, in a unique way invited the teachers one by one to the dais, introduced them bringing to light one unique feature and presented a memento along with a beautiful rose.

Principal Sir in his address greeted all the teachers and reflected on the significant role teachers play in moulding young minds. Chief Guest, AVP Sir, left his short and impressive speech with a question for the students to ponder upon. He quoted, "Just imagine, its only one student and one day that gave the opportunity to escort his/her favourite teacher to the dais ; and the teachers think, care and guide so many students. How difficult the task is !”

The tug-of-war was a real treat to watch, The teachers were divided into two groups to fight it out. They fought and as usual, one group, the stronger one on the day, got the better of the other.

Teachers’ individual performances were simply astonishing. It was talent galore at DPS-JC.

The day ended on a happy note. After a wonderful hilarious presentation by the students, teachers went on a merry journey and enjoyed a sumptuous lunch at the most befitting place.

Aging Care – Grandparents’ Day : 26th September, 2016

The importance of grandparents in the lives of children can’t be denied.

To appreciate & recognize the pivotal role of grandparents in a child’s life, Delhi Public School, Janjgir-Champa observed Grandparents’ Day on 26th September 2016. It was such a wonderful event with the amalgamation of elderly men & women showering their blessings on our children & the school as a whole.

The occasion was graced by Patron Madam Smt. Meena Devi Dewangan & AVP-Sir Shri Kamal Kishore Dewangan.

All had lots of fun with games and entertainment shows organized by the school. Principal Sir in his welcome address mentioned the vital role of grandparents in grooming the future citizens of the nation. On this occasion a few grandparents expressed their joy and gratitude.

All and all, it was a wonderful gesture of love & respect.

Dushehra Celebration : 7th October, 2016

Dushehra - The festival is unique in its perception and significance. Lord Rama killed Ravana on the tenth day. It is triumph of virtue over sin or immorality. Goddess Durga killed the demon Mahisasura, thus bringing an end to his tyranny. DPS-JC too celebrated this wonderful festival with immense devotion and fervour maintaining its significance. Principal Sir lit the holy lamp and the proceedings began.

The story of Goddess Durga and her victory over Mahisasura was beautifully presented in form of stage enactment by small children. Simultaneously the story of Ramayana was briefly but beautifully narrated by Shri Rajendra Upadhayay, a member of the faculty. There were dances and merry making, but the presentation of Ramleela by the children of Pre-Primary wing stole the show. Children dressed in befitting costumes and playing the different characters of Ramayana was a treat to the naked eyes ; add to that the fanatic joy of Garbha. Finally the effigy of the tyrant Ravana, symbolic of Evil, was burnt to ashes as a mark of victory of the Good, i.e. Rama...bringing peace and harmony back on earth.

Annual Sports Day

“The will to win, the desire to succeed, the urge to reach your full potential; these are the keys that will unlock the door to personal excellence.”

Finally the day arrived, the Annual Sports Day, 2016. Preparations had started earlier in form of certain events, practice, and of course, the fanfare. But the final day had a different grandeur. The anxiousness, the excitement, the zeal, the shine in the eyes of the athletes, the passion and determination in those bright eyes, everything had a story to narrate. Leave aside the students, even the teachers were bathing in excitement, as if it weren't the children but they who were to sprint.

The morn of 9th November presented a wonderful sight of DPS-JC, with the sporting arena – the ground, magnificently decorated, the colours of rangoli at the entrance anxiously awaiting the guests, the tracks gaping with wonder, patiently waiting for the sprinters to stamp their authority, and of course, the individuals sweating it out in the last minute preparations, leaving no stone unturned to ensure a flawless gala event.

Sharp at 9.30 am, the Chief Guest for the opening ceremony, Sri Ajeet Vasant (IAS), CEO-Zila Panchayat, Janjgir-Champa, arrived amidst the loud and bold proclamation of Mrs. Kalpana Singh, anchoring the show, and the thunderous claps and cheer of the onlookers. He was accompanied by Sri. Raj Kishore Dewangan, President, DPS-JC, Sri. Purusottam Dewangan, Vice President, DPS-JC, Associate Vice President, Sri. Kamal Kishore Dewangan and Sri. Mani Bhusan Choubey, Principal, DPS-JC. All dignitaries were extended a warm welcome on the red carpet, and led to the dais where they were greeted with bouquets. A beautiful welcome was accorded to the guests in the form of a beautiful song. Thereafter Principal, Sri. Mani Bhusan Choubey, officially welcomed the Chief Guest and other Dignitaries. In his welcome speech he highlighted on the importance of Games and Sports and Sportsmanship. The Chief Guest then inspected the March Past, lit the sports torch and hoisted the school flag. Post March Past and Salute, the Chief Guest administered the oath to the participants. A beautiful Rajasthani Dance added charm to the show and elated one and all. Thereafter, President Sir, Sri. Raj Kishore Dewangan, was invited to address the gathering. Sir, in his ever charming way, elated every heart. He stressed on the importance of sports quoting that sports and studies go hand-in-hand. He also focused on participation and fairness in sporting activities. Next we were privileged to hear the Chief Guest. The Chief Guest in his speech profusely praised the school and School Administration.

He expressed his gratitude for being invited to the school. He recollected memories of his school days and enjoyed the moment of joy and excitement. Thereafter he declared the 6th Annual Sports, 2016 open amidst release of pigeons – symbolizing peace and happiness..

The events amounted for a lot of excitement and joy. The tiny little sprinters won everyone's heart. If anything was missing, it was fulfilled in the last event that accounted for a lot of excitement and fun.

Events ended, and time came for the closing ceremony. The morning that commenced with such jubilation and cheer, suddenly turned somber in the noon; as if life had gone out of the window. But the major wonder was yet to come.

All the four houses assembled once again for the Closing Ceremony March Past. Our very own President Sir, Shri. Rajkishore Dewangan, was the Chief Guest for the Closing Ceremony. He was extended a warm welcome once again. Post march past, the Chief Guest was invited to address the gathering. Prizes were given to the winners by President Sir, Vice President Sir and AVP Sir, and Results were declared one after the other amidst rapturous clapping.

Amidst thunderous applause The Chief Guest declared the names of The Best Athlete in various categories and the Best House in Sports for the year 2016. The winners were awarded with trophies.

Curtains were drawn with the Chief Guest lowering the school flag and extinguishing the sports torch. The four House Captains led by the Sports Secretary, Head Boy and Head Girl, took part in a Flag Drill. Finally, The Head Boy handed over the School Flag to the Chief Guest who handed it to the Principal. It was left in the safe custody of the Organising Secretary, Mr. Piyush Mishra (PET).

To Sum up –

"The medals don't mean anything and the glory doesn't last. It's all about happiness. The rewards are going to come, but happiness is just loving the sport and having fun performing."
